PRESS RELEASE

COUNTY HIGHWAY TO BE CLOSED

For immediate release:

The Kankakee County Highway Department will be doing a full depth pavement removal and replacement on County Highway 54 (3000N Rd) commonly called Second Street, west of Momence. The project runs from approximately 9100E to 9700E; starting at the bridge west of Simpson's Subdivision to 500 feet west of the Norfolk Southern Railroad crossing. This segment of highway will be closed to traffic beginning at 6:00 am on Thursday, August 23rd. It is anticipated it will reopened sometime on Monday, August 27th.

Local residents will be provided access to their property as well as emergency responders.

(If you have any questions, contact Steve Blanchette at the highway department)
